Amenities
Greater Cincinnati boasts major sports teams, numerous parks, museums, theaters, and free year round festivals. The region has also been recognized for a thriving dining, brewery, and craft distillery scene. Housing options are diverse and include everything from urban lofts, to new suburban homes, historic neighborhoods, and rolling farmlands. The CVG Airport is ranked 2nd best regional airport in the country and can connect you anywhere in the world. Local residents and employees also spend less time in traffic, with average commute times of 22 minutes.

Accessibility
Greater Cincinnati offers a variety transportation options including the TANK bus system, Southbank Shuttle, newly completed Cincinnati street car system, and the Red Bike bike share program. Situated at the crossroads of 4 major interstates, travelers can visit 27 major metro areas within 600 miles.

Diversity
The Greater Cincinnati regional business community continues to lead the way in inclusion and equal rights. In 2016, Cincinnati received a perfect score on the Human Rights Campaign’s Municipal Equality Index. Greater Cincinnati is also the birthplace of the Minority Business Accelerator (MBA). Run by the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber, the MBA is considered national model for minority economic development.
